

English history

When renovating their home in Robertson, in the NSW Southern Highlands, interior designer

Jessica Halvorsen was inspired by her husband. "James is from Kent, so I wanted to create an English country cottage style," she says. The wall lights are from the Cotswolds, and the taps are Olde English by Astra Walker.

The soft sage colour scheme is partly a trick of the light: a golden north-east glow gives the Farrugia Kitchens & Joinery cabinets, in grey-toned Dulux Pozieres, a warm green cast. Visit halvorseninteriors.com.au >
